I think they are referring to the 2013 BAR. The January version went out with Email but had the error in the referenced sections. The hard copy fixed the error but I wasn't sure if a soft copy went out or just the hard copy.

The 2014 BAR has not been sent out in any form yet. It is getting its last printer-friendly formatting. It was intended to be out in electronic form on March 1, and in paper form by the end of March [REDACTED]

The March 2013 BAR with the updated sections was sent as hard copy to all pilots. I don't know if it was sent as a soft copy as well. [REDACTED] do you know?
